

About Trish Mandewo

I am a Mom, wife and a hardworking business woman and I come from humble beginnings. I will bring a FRESH, independent and unique voice to the council table

As a "Conscious Politician" I have the ability to critically analyze the political, economic and social forces affecting our community. The needs of residents will always guide my decisions and be my priority. I am running for the people of Coquitlam NOT for my own interests.

Mandewo's Community record includes:

- Coquitlam Foundation Board of Director
- City of Coquitlam Multiculturalism Committee
- Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce Board Chair for Economic Summit
- Tri-city Transition Society Board Member
- ECD - Family friendly business committee
- Autism Speaks Canada - Corporate Sponsorship chair for Van walk
- Valley Women's Network - Website coordinator
- TCC Toastmasters International - VP of Communications
- Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce: Immigration & Trade Committee Chair, Ambassador for 2 years
- 2016 BC Senior Games - Competition Chair
- Coquitlam Tennis Club President (3 years)
- Tennis BC Director for Ladies Tennis Inter Club League (3 years)

Mandewo's Awards & Achievements

Multi Award Winner including 2018 Canada 150 Sesquicentennial Leadership Pin Recipient, 2017 RBC Winner - Top 25 Canadian Immigrant Awards, 2016 Winner Tri-Cities Champions for Young Children Award of Excellence and other business awards.

I will bring a FRESH, independent and unique voice to the council table. Vote Mandewo on October 20.
